SONOMA, Calif. May 19, 2016 — Allegiant (NASDAQ: ALGT) today launches new, nonstop service between Sonoma and Las Vegas. To celebrate, the company, known for its exceptional travel deals, is offering one-way fares on the new route for as low as $35.*

"Allegiant is looking forward to providing a low-cost travel option between Las Vegas and Sonoma," said Jude Bricker, Allegiant chief operating officer. "The service announcement was well received, and we are confident travelers will enjoy all that these two renowned destinations have to offer."

To kick off the new service, Allegiant and Charles M. Schulz-Sonoma County Airport (STS) are giving vacation seekers the opportunity to win free roundtrip airfare with a "Message in a Bottle" giveaway. The promotion is part of Allegiant’s "$1 Million Summer," through which the company is giving away $1 million in airfare by September 5, 2016. Sonoma area residents and travelers will be asked to complete an entry form detailing how an Allegiant vacation will allow them to connect with the people and places that are most meaningful in their lives. Stories will be placed in a bottle located at the airport and collected on May 19, 2016 from noon to 4 p.m.

New year-round service from Charles M. Schulz-Sonoma County Airport (STS) to Las Vegas via McCarran International Airport (LAS) will operate twice weekly. Flight days, times and the lowest fares can only be found at Allegiant.com.

“Allegiant service starting today is very exciting,” said Jon Stout, airport manager at Charles M. Schulz-Sonoma County Airport. “The community has been yearning for Las Vegas flights, and we’re thrilled to deliver. Las Vegas will be Sonoma County’s sixth destination, with Phoenix-Mesa following next week as the seventh. We are very pleased with this partnership, and look forward to serving our passengers with additional destinations.”

Allegiant’s innovative business model has allowed it to grow from one plane and one route to offering access to low-cost flights in over 100 cities nationwide, more than any other domestic low-cost carrier. Allegiant passengers can enjoy unique savings by bundling their air, hotel, car and even activity and attraction reservations together for less.
